
This List Is A Labor Of Love Between Our Advanced Sommelier, Alexandra Cherniavsky And Aimee Olexy. The Goal Was To Put Together Several Mini Wine Lists, Each With Their Own Perspective And Each Containing Incredibly Delicious, Ready To Drink Juice. These Are Wines That We Are Excited About Right Now And That We Know You Will Love. We Want Wine To Be Fun And To Be A Part Of Every Meal. We Believe A Bottle Of Wine Shared Between Friends Over Dinner Is A Truly Magical Experience. Whenever Possible, We Choose To Work With Small Producers, Sustainable Farmers, And Stewards Of The Land And Of Our Planet.

Can't Decide On A Bottle? We Would Be Pleased To Open Most Things On Our Bottle List For You By The Glass For 25% Of The Bottle Price. Questions About The Wines On This List? Please Ask. Each Wine Has A Story And We'd Love To Share It With You.

BEGIN WITH BUBBLES

There is a case to be made that every great meal starts with bubbles. From wine to beer to cider, these are all great choices to either begin a meal or to carry you straight through to dessert.

FEATURED WINTER WINES

Riesling, Dönnhoff, Nahe, DE, 2017 $72

Riesling in its most exceptional form often comes from Germany.

This wine from Cornelius Dönnhoff is a wonderful example of off-dry Riesling to pair with nearly everything on the menu. Often overlooked by guests, Riesling is perfect with food due to its high acidity and fruity profile. The hint of sugar works well with a hint of spice in dishes like our fried chicken or our hot and sour halibut.

Baga/Touriga Nacional 'Baaaga Duck', João Pato aka Duckman, PR, NV $80

Made by João Pato, the daughter of the legendary Portuguese producer Luis Pato, this wine is an ode to what Portuguese natural winemaking should be. It is light and juicy, with enough tannin to give excellent structure to the wine. The red fruit and wonderful acidity makes this an excellent pairing for many of the winter flavors on our menu.
